The Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

The SPEECH of the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief in and over His Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

Gent'emen of His Majeſty's Council, and Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen.

I AM glad of an Opportunity of meeting you at laſt in General Aſſembly, at a Time when the Publick Affairs require our greateſt Care and Attention to provide for the Defence and Security of this Province, by ſuch Means as are moſt likely to anſwer thoſe deſireable Ends.

It is with great Pleaſure that I can acquaint you, that I have had the good Fortune to ſucceed in my Application to His Majeſty for a further ſupply of Ordinance and ſmall Arms, which are ſo compleatly fitted with all Neceſſaries, that they are ready for immediate Service. This is ſuch a diſtinguiſhing Mark of the Royal Favour and Regard which his moſt gracious Majeſty has ſhewn for the Welfare of this flouriſhing Province, that I doubt not but you will readily concur with me in returning his Majeſty a grateful Addreſs of our Thanks, and to aſſure his Majeſty that nothing ſhall be wanting on our Parts to teſtify our Loyalty to his Majeſty and to concert and execute moſt vigorous Meaſures in our own Defence, I am perſuaded that nothing will recommend us more to his Majeſty's further Favour and Protection.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

As the Ordinance is already arrived which his Majeſty has granted for the Defence of this Province, and the Meaſures which his Majeſty has been pleaſed to take to vindicate the Honour of his Crown, and to procure Satisfaction for his injured Subjects, may be attended with an open Rupture; I therefore recommend to you the Diſpatch of ſuch a Proviſion as will be ſufficient to finiſh the Curtain Line and other Fortifications; and likewiſe for ſcout Boats and Look-outs on the Sea-Coaſts, as well as Rangers to cover and protect our out-Settlements, which in the preſent Poſture of Affairs ſeem abſolutely neceſſary. I recommend to you to make Proviſion to anſwer the Demands upon the Publick Treaſury, and alſo for the contingent Charges of the Government, which in all Probability may be greater now than formerly.

Gentlemen of his Majeſty's Council, and Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

It is my Duty, my Inclination, and my Intereſt, to promote the Proſperity of this Province on all Occaſions, and as I doubt not but you are met together with the ſame Views and Intentions, I therefore think it needleſs to recommend to you, that Unanimity and Diſpatch which is ſo neceſſary in the preſent Juncture of Affairs, and which will contribute ſo much to the Succeſs of all our Endeavours and Undertakings. WILLIAM BULL.

Novemb. 7. 1739.

The humble ADDRESS of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of the ſaid Province.

May it pleaſe your Honour,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of his Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina, now met in General Aſſembly, cannot but return your Honour our moſt hearty Thanks for your Speech yeſterday, delivered to us at the opening of this Seſſion. And we muſt at the ſame Time declare the Concern we are under, that the double Returns on ſo many Writs of Election, have with other Impediments, ſo long prevented our Attendance on your Honour, for the Progreſs and Diſpatch of the publick Buſineſs.

We have the higheſt Senſe of the many Inſtances this Province from time to time received of his Majeſty's moſt gracious Concern for our Security and Welfare, which we were always ready to acknowledge in the moſt grateful and dutiful Manner; and as the late Supply of Ordinance and ſmall Arms, which his Majeſty has been pleaſed to ſend us, on your Honour's Application, is ſo ſignal and recent a Proof of his Majeſty's moſt tender and paternal Care of us, we cannot fail of concurring moſt chearfully with your Honour in a grateful Addreſs of our moſt ſincere and dutiful Thanks to his moſt ſacred Majeſty on this remarkable Inſtance of his Majeſty's Royal Bounty: And we muſt alſo take this Opportunity to declare ourſelves willing with Hearts and Hands, to convince the World that his Majeſty's Arms are beſtow'd upon a People ready to execute to the utmoſt of their Power, the moſt vigorous Meaſures, in Vindication of his Majeſty's Honour, as well as their own Defence againſt his Majeſty's Enemies.

The Particulars mentioned in your Honour's Speech relating to the Curtain Line, Scout Boats, Rangers and Look-outs, we ſhall conſider in due time with proper Attention; as well as every thing elſe your Honour ſhall be pleaſed to communicate to us in the preſent Situation of Affairs. And as a Proviſion to anſwer the Demand on the publick Treaſury is highly neceſſary for the Support of the publick Credit, we hope to give your Honour an early Aſſurance that we are met together with a true Diſpoſition of being unanimous to promote the Service and Intereſt of our Country, in which our Endeavours cannot fail of Succeſs, as we make no doubt of meeting with the hearty Concurrence of his Majeſty's Honourable Council.

CHARLES-

CHARLESTOWN, in S. CAROLINA.

November 17. Tueſday laſt being the firſt Day of the Court of Common Pleas, Benjamin Whitaker, Eſq; was appointed Chief Juſtice of this Province.

By Capt. Arrowſmith, we hear, that Capt Luſh (with whom he ſail'd from New-York in a Privateer) had taken two Spaniſh Schooners off the Point of Crawka, but the Spaniards all jump'd over-board except one who could not ſwim; then Capt. Luſh put a few Men on board of each, and ſent them to this Place, but they are not yet heard of. He then ſail'd for the Port of Prince, where he took a Sloop (whoſe Men alſo jump'd over board and ſwam to the Shore) and put the ſaid Arrowſmith on board, who arrived here with her on Saturday laſt, and ſays that when he left him he ſail'd for the Bay of Mexico.

His Excellency James Glyn, Eſq; who was lately appointed Governor of this Province, is expected here about Chriſtmas, in his Majeſty's Ship the Greenwich, a fourth Rate of Fifty Guns, commanded by Capt. Windham, which Ship we hear will be ſtation'd at Georgia.

By Capt. John Murray, who arrived here laſt Week from Providence, we hear, that when he was there a Rhode-Iſland Privateer brought in a Prize which ſhe had juſt taken; and that Capt. Fraſer was arrived there from Jamaica, who informed that the Men of War there had already taken ſeveral Spaniſh Veſſels as lawful Prizes.

'Tis reported here, that a Privateer has put in at Georgia to refit, having had a ſharp Engagement with a ſpaniſh Man of War, and loſt 40 Men.

His Majeſty's Ship the Tartar Pink, is arrived from a Cruiſe. And His Majeſty's Sloop the Spence, is ſail'd on a Cruiſe.

RHODE-ISLAND,

NEWPORT, Dec. 14. It is reported here from New-York, that Capt. Benjamin Wickham, Commander of a Privateer of this Place, belonging to Capt. Godfrey Malbone, has taken two ſpaniſh ſhips, and carried them to Jamaica to be condemn'd.

BOSTON, Decemb. 10.

Extract of a Letter from New-London, Decemb. 6.

" Yeſterday a Sloop arrived from Antigua, and on her " Paſſage ſpoke with a Ship of 180 Tons, Benjamin Jen- " kins Commander, laden with Wheat, &c. from Philadel- " phia, for Lisbon: The ſaid Ship had ſprung a Leak, and " the Crew, after finding they could not free her, left her, " and came hither in the ſaid Sloop."

Laſt Week Capt. Snow arrived here from South-Carolina, who met with a very great Storm of Wind, which tore a new Main ſail all to Pieces; the ſaid Capt. reports, that he ſaw four or five Veſſels off this Coaſt, in a very diſtreſſing Condition, viz. A Snow which had loſt her Fore Maſt; and a Sloop belonging to Rhode-Iſland, which had her Quarter ſtove in, the People hard at the Pump; that he would fain have taken them in, but the Weather was ſo bad that he durſt not venture near them, for fear of ſtaving each other: The other Veſſels he cannot give any other Account of, than that they appeared to him, to be in great Diſtreſs: He alſo reports that he ſaw a great Number of Maſts and Yards floating on the Seas.

December 17. On Tueſday laſt died here in the 49th Year of his Age, and on Saturday was inter'd with much Reſpect, JOHN BOYDELL, Eſq; late Publiſher of the Boſton Gazette, and ſome time Deputy Poſt-Maſter within this and the three neighbouring Governments; than whom none ever liv'd in this Province, more generally eſteem'd and beloved, as an honeſt worthy Man, by Perſons of all Ranks, Perſwaſions and Parties, or was more lamented as ſuch at his Death.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Newport, dated December 10. 1739.

" Thomas Newton, Quarter-Maſter of Capt. Hall, return'd home laſt Saturday by Way of New-York, and brings the following Advice; That they ſail'd from hence in a ſmall Sloop of about 30 Tons, with 29 Hands, having a Letter of Marque: They arrived at Turks Iſland in 14 Days in hopes of getting more Men, but failing, they proceeded to Hiſpaniola, with Deſign to make a Deſcent on a ſmall Town call'd Port of Plate; in a few Day they arriv'd, and anchor'd under the Fort, pretending they were a Curraccoa Trader; Their Deſign was to land that Night and ſurprize the Town, but were prevented by the Inhabitants keeping a good Watch round the Bay and at the Fort, ſuſpecting they were Pirates. The Governor of the Place being ſick, and underſtanding they had a Surgeon on board, ſent to deſire him to come aſhore and bleed him, which Capt. Hall conceded to.

Accordingly, the Doctor, Quarter-Maſter and Linguiſter waited on him the next Morning, informing him that they had Flour and other Proviſions to ſell, and gave him an Invitation on board, but being ill he declin'd it; but after being blooded by the Surgeon, he ſent his Lieutenant to purchaſe Proviſion, who then return'd with ſome of the Inhabitants on board, whom they ſecur'd; upon which Ten of our Men were immediately landed to take the Fort, ſeven of whom march'd up, ſurpriz'd and took it; and after diſmounting the Cannon, they went back to meet their Comrades who were expected on ſhore, and then making up 19 Men, theſe 19 boldly march'd to the Town: but before they came up, the Spaniards were alarm'd, and a conſiderable Number got together in Arms, and fired upon our Men, who ſtill advanc'd as they fired; and having got within Piſtol Shot, they diſcharg'd Ten ſmall Arms upon the Spaniards, who thereupon retreated, our Men advancing and firing till at laſt they were entirely routed. Then entring the Town they plunder'd it of every thing that was thought valuable: There was got out of the Spaniſh Church, two Gold Candleſticks, and two Silver ones, with about 30 Pounds Weight of Silver. The Value of what they carried off I can't yet inform you, but our People expect to ſhare a Hundred Pounds per Man at leaſt. They were in the Town all Day, and before they left it burnt every Houſe down to the Ground, being about two Hundred. They then return'd in the Evening, and brought the Sloop along ſide the Fort, and took on board ſix large braſs eight Pounders, which they had before diſmounted. They alſo took a ſmall Schooner in the Harbour with a conſiderable Quantity of Brandy on Board; and then ſail'd for New-Providence to join Capt. Walker, with Deſign to go and take ſome Towns and Villages on the Iſland of Cuba.

The Quarter Maſter who was in this Action, gave me this Account himſelf; and what makes their Succeſs the greater is, that they loſt not one Man in the Engagement, but kill'd three and wounded one of the Enemy in taking the Fort, but how many in taking the Town, I don't remember that he told me. I think, upon the whole, that it was as bold an Attempt as I have ever met with.

We hear by Capt Dowrick, who arrived here ſome Days paſt in 30 Days from Jamaica, that the Day before he left that Place, three Spaniſh Veſſels richly laden, were brought in there by our Men of War.

PHILADELPHIA.

Some Days ſince one Matthias Shahan, of the Manor of Moreland, in Philadelphia County, Taylor, having drank freely, found himſelf diſordered, and laying himſelf on the Floor to ſleep near a good Fire, died in his Sleep.
